

Infrastructure
Canada

SECRET

BRIEFING NOTE TO THE MINISTER OF INFRASTRUCTURE AND COMMUNITIES

INFRASTRUCTURE PATHWAYS FOR THE 21st CENTURY: COMPETITIVE, CLEAN AND CLIMATE SMART COMMUNITIES

(For Information)

PURPOSE

To provide, for your information, an annotated outline and critical path for the development of a forward looking policy document [REDACTED]

SUMMARY

- Infrastructure Canada (INFC) officials have met with your office [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
- Attached is a proposed outline for the document, as well as a critical path [REDACTED]
- [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

CONTEXT AND KEY FACTS

- INFC officials have met with your office [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
- A critical path is being proposed [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

SECRET

-

NEXT STEPS

- Department officials are available to discuss the outline and critical path or take on board your comments and input as we develop the paper, at the convenience of you and your office.

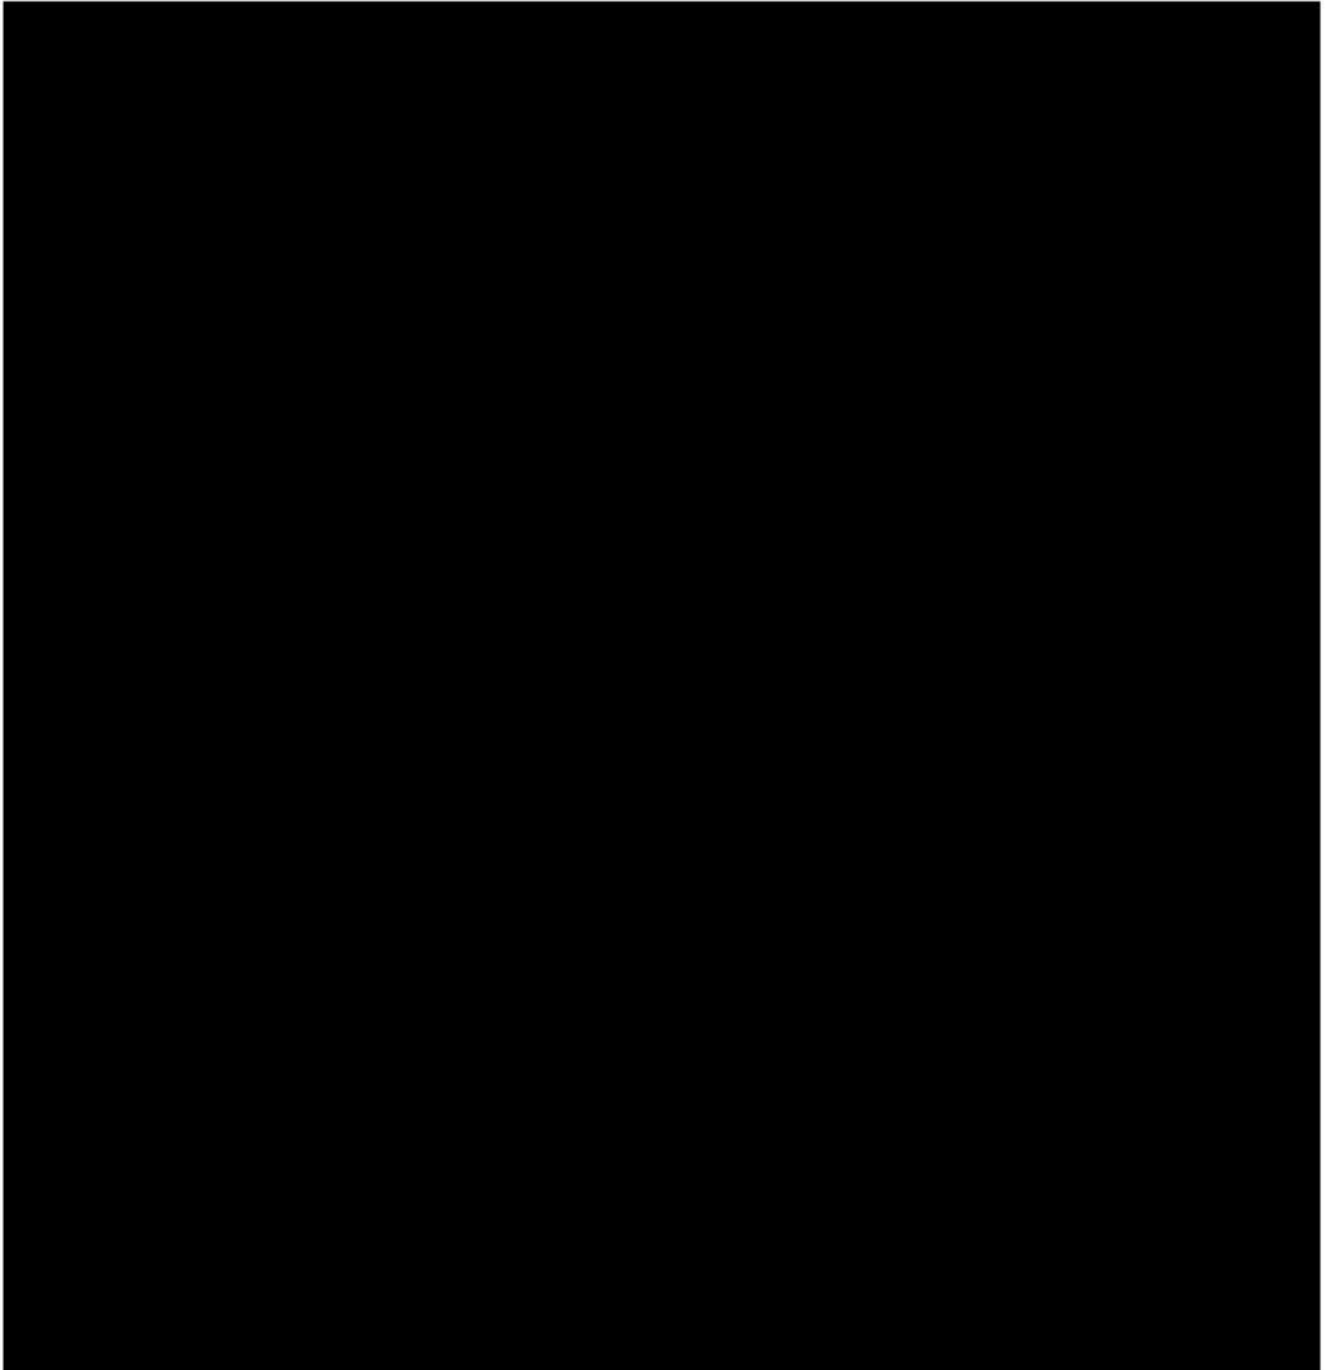

<hr/>	<hr/>
Kelly Gillis Deputy Minister Infrastructure and Communities	Date

Attachments:

Draft Critical Path – Infrastructure Pathways for the 21st Century: Competitive, Clean and Climate Smart Canadian Communities

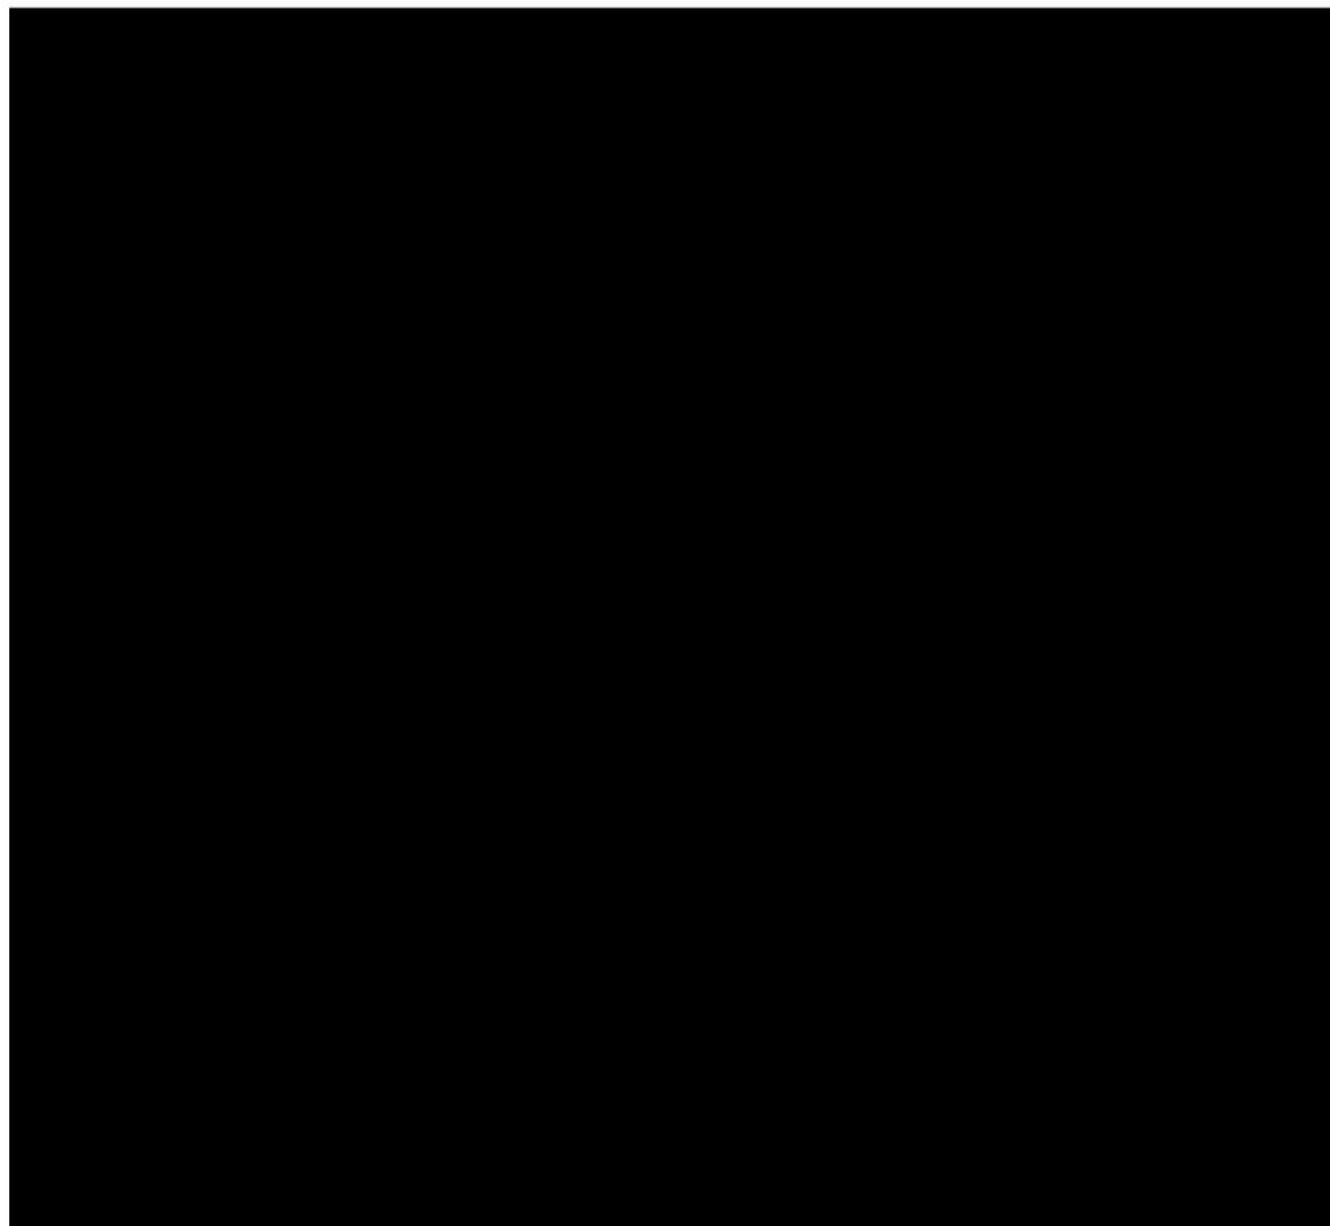

Draft Outline - Infrastructure Pathways for the 21st Century: Competitive, Clean and Climate Smart Canadian Communities

Infrastructure Pathways for the 21st Century: Competitive, Clean, and Climate Smart Canadian Communities: Annotated Outline

v.

VI. Annex: What our investments have achieved (IICP Progress Section – Three Key Components):

- Investing in Canada Plan projects

[Redacted text block]

- Updated implementation data table:

[Redacted text block]

- Infrastructure results by Plan outcome:

[Redacted text block]

Notional week-by-week critical path – Infrastructure Strategy Document

[illegible]